FORCED to abandon his dream career as goalkeeper for Coventry City at the age of 21 because of rheumatoid arthritis, David Icke became a popular figure as sports presenter at the BBC while representing the Green Party as official spokesman. After recurring epiphanies that led to a journey of profound synchronicities and enquiry, Icke embarked on his current career of investigative journalism and international author. Despite his theories often being publicly ridiculed, a strong fan following expressed through sold out seminars across the globe gave credence to his research and theories and solidified his role as publicly giving voice to questions that many did not have the strength to ask or answer.

In recent years, alternative versions of reality that were previously dismissed as “conspiracy theories” have increasingly taken up the spotlight as facts emerge in support of these sometimes controversial claims. At the forefront of this profession is bestselling UK author and speaker, David Icke. His “Worldwide Wake Up” Tour is the culmination of a 26 year career exposing hidden political agendas, espionage, secret societies and covert manipulation of the masses. Often the target for mainstream media smear campaigns led by prominent political figures and media celebrities and having withstood ongoing derision, many of David Icke’s “absurd” theories have been confirmed as truth and are unfolding before our very eyes today.

Since the early nineties and throughout his extensive career, David repeatedly made predictions of future world events based on his research at given times. He wrote extensively about a group of families linked by bloodline that control the major economies and consequently, the governments of the world. He has exposed a hidden agenda to enslave humanity through the introduction of a fascist world government that will rule over all of humanity via a centralized world bank, a one world army and a gigantic police state. He has described a world where fundamental human rights such as freedom of speech, thought and expression is disallowed and punished by being branded as “terrorism”, and where any opposition to the ruling elite is suppressed by force and financial mechanisms of control. According to David Icke, the planned trigger for this agenda of global control will be a third world war that will forever transform life on the planet, presenting the opportunity to usher in the New World Order to an unsuspecting and accepting, post war humanity.

David Icke will also be launching his latest book at “Worldwide Wake Up” Tour called “Phantom Self” which offers solutions to society’s challenges highlighted in his life’s work. Focusing on David’s fundamental belief that a worldwide awakening of humanity is happening where the individual undergoes an integral transformation from what he refers to as the “Phantom Self” to Universal Truth and Infinite Self. He illustrates how deconstructing the false ego of self identification through confronting the truths of our current disempowering reality is crucial for humanity's freedom from global tyranny. The current state of the world is only a reflection of the inner state of the individual. In order to create a harmonious reality, it is necessary for the individual to explore the deeper realms of their own consciousness which projects onto the collective reality, unlocking our limitless potential to decide our own experience and destiny.

It is obvious that our world is undergoing major changes with the threat of world war, an impending financial collapse, the rapid deterioration of individual and community ethics and the dehumanization of entire societies. We live in a time where humanity is being asked to choose between apathy or taking responsibility for the world that we have helped create. Once again, David Icke has answered the call with the launch of his latest book "Phantom Self". The "Worldwide Wake Up Tour" is sure to be a paradigm shifting experience for all that would like to push the boundaries of their consciousness.

Predictions made by David Icke – verified over time by actual events

- Icke has written and publicly stated since the early 1990s that society will become increasingly like Orwell's 1984 and Huxley's Brave New World. He said that these were not 'novels' but written from a perspective and knowledge of what was to come.

This is happening all over the world as basic freedoms and privacy are expunged by mass surveillance programs and increasingly hostile, aggressive and psychopathic policing. The use of genetics and drugs to manipulate human perception described in Huxley's book is currently being implemented.

- Icke said that terrorism would be used to change the face of human society and justify war and the deletion of freedoms to 'protect the public from terrorism'. He coined the phrase 'Problem-Reaction-Solution' (now being used in the new X-Files series) to describe how the Hidden Hand creates problems to which the public react and society is then changed to respond to the 'problem'. He also coined the phrase the 'Totalitarian Tiptoe' to describe how changes are made step by step, A to B to C, to hide the fact that the plan all along is to reach 'Z' – a global totalitarian state.

- Icke said that cash will disappear and there will be a global cashless society – eventually only one single world electronic currency would exist. Icke has explained why this has fundamental implications for freedom.

Cash is rapidly disappearing to credit cards and smartphones with countries like Sweden already virtually cashless and ATMs being removed.

- Icke has been writing since the 1990s about a Third World War planned to be triggered out of the Middle East with NATO and the West pitched against Russia and China.

We now have Russia in Syria in support of President Assad (also supported by China and Iran) against the United States, Britain, France, Turkey and others who seek to remove Assad. The potential for conflict is enormous in addition to the manipulated Ukraine-Russian disputes.

- Icke exposed in 1998 a global paedophile ring involving some of the most famous people on earth and he exposed the Westminster paedophile ring – 14 years before it was publicly revealed.

*Extraordinary revelations about VIP paedophilia have been made public in recent years – confirming what Icke said in his presentations and his 1998 book, The Biggest Secret.*

- Icke named specific people as paedophiles including former Prime Minister Ted Heath and Margaret Thatcher's chief aide Lord Alistair McAlpine in his 1998 book The Biggest Secret; Thatcher's Home Secretary Lord Leon Brittan in his 2013 book The Perception Deception; and he also named BBC 'entertainer' Jimmy Saville as a paedophile and necrophiliac in 2011 – before the enormous Saville paedophile scandal came to public attention.

Ted Heath became subject to a police paedophile investigation 17 years after Icke first named him while he was still alive and a Member of Parliament. Leon Brittan has since been subject to public investigations into paedophile rings and Lord McAlpine was at the centre of public paedophile allegations before his accuser miraculously changed his mind after a meeting with police.

- Icke said a massive global economic collapse was planned (see 2008) and an even bigger one is to come with 'bail in' laws used to allow banks to steal depositors' money to save themselves.

The economic collapse duly came in 2008 and financial experts and insiders are predicting another this year or next. The difference this time, as Icke pointed out, is that government bailouts of struggling banks are being replaced with the bail-in which allows banks to confiscate the funds of depositors and literally steal their money.

- Icke has been predicting human microchipping since his book The Robots' Rebellion, written in 1993, and said that humans were planned to be technologically transformed into robots.

Human microchipping is now a fact and we are rapidly moving into the era of what are called 'implantables' – technology inside the human body to connect the body-mind to the Internet, computers and other technology under the name 'transhumanism'.

- He said in the 1990s that microchips would eventually be so small they could be inserted with a hypodermic needle in vaccine programmes.

We now call what he was talking about 'nanotechnology' under names like 'smart dust' and 'neural dust'.

- Icke said the plan eventually was for compulsory vaccinations and microchipping.

Compulsory vaccinations are being introduced in California with other states following suit and laws are being introduced in Australia to deny government benefits to anyone who does not have their children vaccinated according to the government imposed schedule.

- He exposed a planned one world government, central bank, currency, army and the end of national sovereignty when he wrote The Robots Rebellion in 1993.

The blatant and ever-gathering centralisation of global power is now undeniable in every aspect of human life on the road to what Icke has predicted.

- Icke has written in several books that 'physical' reality is an illusion and we live in a holographic world.

Scientific studies around the world are now concluding that the universe is likely to be a hologram creating only the illusion of physicality.

- Icke has also written that we call 'physical' reality is akin to a quantum computer simulation.

Other scientific studies are concluding that the evidence points to the fact that we live in some kind of computer-like simulation and that the physics of a computer video game are the same as human reality.
